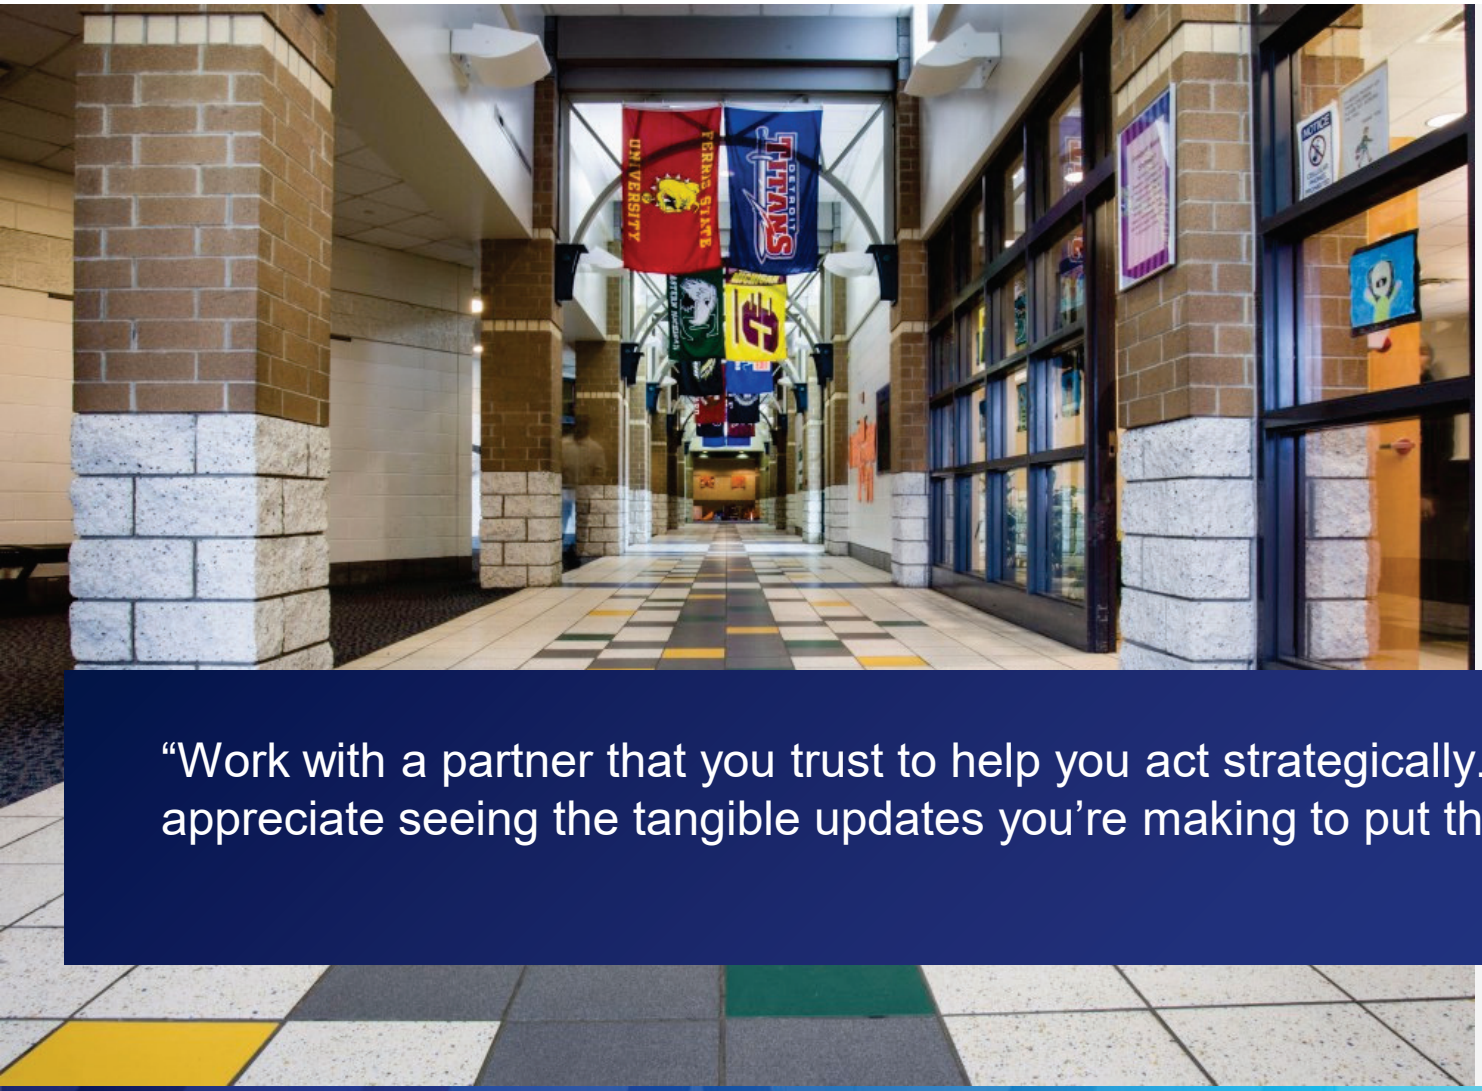
Ecourse Public Schools

Ecourse, Michigan

Federal relief funds allow the district to make critical clean air updates while retaining capital.



Focus & Details

- Classroom IAQ
- Leveraged Federal Funds
- $1.7M in Improvements for Four Schools
- Replaced RTU's
- Installation of IsoClean Filtration
- Community Confidence

"Work with a partner that you trust to help you act strategically. Your students, staff and their families will appreciate seeing the tangible updates you're making to put their health first."

--Dr. Josha Talison, Superintendent

Broward County School District

Broward County, Florida

Revitalized district infrastructure improves efficiency and generates millions in utility and cost savings.

Focus & Details

- Phased Approach
- Validate Results
- Environmental Stewardship
- LED Lighting Heavy
- Drive GF Benefits
- Approaching $75M In Solutions

"Johnson Controls was awarded the first phase because of the strength of their technical audit and proposal. Proven results , and exceptional performance after the sale is what has led to an additional four phases."

--Joe Fellmeth, Project Manager

Oxford High School

Oxford, Mississippi

First high school in Mississippi to achieved LEED Silver® certification by the U.S. Green Building Council

Focus & Details

- Metasys Controls
- Security Management System
- Access Controls
- Modular Central Energy Plant
- Energy Cost Management
- LEED Silver certification

"Without the cooperation and coordination of Johnson Controls, our new high school would not be a reality. The professionalism of their employees was a valued addition to the construction process.“

--Brian Harvey, Superintendent